Great. I finally completed my review of the general comment responses so am feeling far less guilty. Did have a problem of version control as Allison and Don for some reason both wanted to consolidate the comments and finalize the noncontroversial issues document and both did so while I was doing the consolidation. Oh well.

Yes - that's what I meant instead of the issues updated. The Status update is fine.

I'm getting some excellent comments from the pesticide team, too.

Jayne, I'm fine with the issues update. I also talked with Alan, and he's going to take over the leads for roads and landslides. He's a busy guy! (I offered to help on write-ups, if needed, and I'm sure we'll all pitch in.)
